

I'm going to be creamated, ashes to ashe

I'm going to be creamated, ashes to ashes, dust to dust! I don't want a parking lot built over me, and I don't want to be floating around somewhere, (example) Katrina! Remember that? And a mausoleum just needs a little earthquake or hurricane sandy. Soooo! Be done with it and get creamated, and your family won't have to worry about where you are!
