

Folks, Once you're dead, you're dead. I dont think anyone would care once they are in the box, what happens to them. THEY'RE DEAD! We bury, cremate, or entomb with love and respect. But the bottom line is, the loved one or respected one is DEAD! Not to sound coldhearted, but its just a reality check we all need from time to time.