

3/25/2010—The Funeral Consumers Alliance of the Piedmont in North Carolina has put together a concise, one-page statement of its legislative and consumer protection priorities.

This is an excellent idea for any FCA group to copy. Sending such a document at least once a year to your state's lawmakers establishes you as a credible consumer advocacy group and builds a relationship with legislators.